Mt. 6:1-4

III The Practice and Reward of T_____ Giving vv 3-4

Giving to help those in need should be a N_____ activity of the Christian, and he should do it as:

- S _____
- D _____
- D _____ as possible

In Mt. 5:16 Jesus is dealing with C _____

In Mt. 6:1 Jesus is dealing with H _____

From Scripture we learn of at least seven principles to guide us in nonhypocritical giving:

- First: Giving from the heart is investing with G _____
- Second: Genuine giving is to be S _____
- Third: Responsibility for giving has no R _____ to how much a person has.
- Fourth: Material giving correlates to S _____ blessings.
- Fifth: Giving is to be P _____ D _____
- Sixth: We are to give in response to N _____
- Seventh: Giving demonstrates L _____, not law.

All of the previous principles point to the obligation to give generously:

- Because we are I _____ in God's work
- Because we are willing to S _____ for Him who sacrificed Himself for us
- Because it has no bearing on how M _____ we have
- Because we want spiritual R _____ more than financial riches
- Because we have P _____ determined to give
- Because we want to meet A__ M _____ need as we can
- Because our L _____ compels us to give

The principle is this:

If we R _____, God will F _____; but if we F _____, God will R _____

CONCLUSION:

The greatest reward a believer can have is the knowledge that he has pleased his Lord.
