

Mt.9.18-26 “Jesus’ Power to Save”
Matthew Series: ‘THE KING IS COMING’ #124
April 25, 2021

The first thing that brought Jairus to Jesus was a DEEP NEED ...

v.18 - JESUS WAS ACCESSIBLE

(1) The first step in witnessing is to convince people of their need of salvation.

Jairus knew he had only one hope for help - He did not come to Christ out of an entirely pure motive.

(2) The second thing that brought him to Jesus, his faith.

v.19 - JESUS WAS AVAILABLE

God is sensitive to the needs of the multitude and the cry of an individual.

vv. 20-22 - JESUS WAS APPROACHABLE

Jesus’ attention was called to another single individual—an interruption became an opportunity.

She would touch His garment, confident that even that indirect contact with Him was enough.

He was touchable even by the untouchable.

Jesus knows the one who comes to Him in desperation & genuine faith.

Gk. – iaomai: _____ (Mk.5.29, 34)

Gk. – therapeuo: _____ (Lk.8.43);

Made “well” comes from sōzō, the usual New Testament term for being saved from sin.

Being made well included spiritual salvation as well as physical healing.

Jesus’ miracles of healing were by His sovereign will, and not conditioned by it.

The two things that bring men and women to Jesus Christ are ✚ deep-felt personal need &

✚ genuine faith.

vv.23-26 - JESUS WAS POWERFUL

Jewish funerals involved three prescribed ways of expressing grief and lamentation:

First was the tearing, of one’s garment.

Second was by the hiring of professional women mourners.

Third involved hiring professional musicians, most often flute-players.

Jesus’ touching & speaking to her manifest compassion & tenderness.

- ❖ The Son of Man has demonstrated His power over every enemy, including Satan & death! He truly holds “the keys of death and Hades” (Re.1.18).

CONCLUSION:

The Son of Man has demonstrated His power over every enemy of man, including Satan & death.

In Christ there is no longer reason to fear ...
