Jesus’ miracles attested that some day He would R_____ the curse & R_____ righteousness, harmony, & peace in all of His creation.

He demonstrated His D_____ & established His credentials as the M_____ (8.16–17; 9.35; 11.5). He demonstrated His power to restore L_____ & to restore W_____ to any part of the body.

I. JESUS WAS A_____ v.18

Whether it was the Pharisees or the C_____ disciples of John the Baptist in which our Lord made clear that He had come to save only

- ✚ those who acknowledge & confess their sins &
- ✚ that the ways of the old life of the flesh & the new life of the spirit are totally I_____.

The woman’s act of reverence was entirely E_____ & S_____ -serving.

The day after his thirteenth birthday a Jewish boy was recognized as a M_____. The day after her 12th birthday a Jewish girl was recognized as a W_____.

Jairus knew that the only hope lay in the Man R_____ & D_____. His faith was without R_____ or a hint of doubt.

So, the first thing that brought Jairus to Jesus was D_____ N_____. He did not come to Christ out of an entirely P_____ motive - his first concern was his daughter’s life.

That is the second thing that brought him to Jesus, H_____ F_____. The Creator of the universe, the Master of the world, the King of kings & Lord of lords ... was not too busy to stoop in M_____ to serve His creatures.

II. JESUS WAS A_____ v.19

God not only is S_____ to

- ✚ the needs of the multitude but to
- ✚ the cry of an individual.

The Lord makes certain His promise that “the one who comes to Me I will certainly not cast out” (Jn.6.37).

Joining Jesus in the short trip to Jairus’ house were his disciples, along with “a great multitude” (Mk.5.24).
