

In Joel we see that God does not use Joel's _____ to relate His message, rather, He uses _____.

The theme of the book of Joel is _____; and _____ for those who repent.

Joel immediately begins by calling the attention of the nation as he relates a disaster that had recently struck the land.

What was this great event which called for such desperate language by Joel? It was a _____.

Like the people of the Northern Kingdom of Israel, the people of Judah had become _____ in their earthly _____.

_____ is a major theme within this prophesy.

Joel speaks of the plague of locusts and the drought as a _____ of the further punishment which God will bring upon the people of Judah for their sins.

Sin is not something to take lightly. God's _____ does not tolerate sin, it consumes it. His _____ does not excuse sin, it punishes it.

Sin will be punished in two ways:

For those _____ it has been paid through His substitutionary death upon the cross.

For those who are _____, He will condemn them to hell for all eternity.

When we see the evil around us, we must remind ourselves of two biblical truths:

First, we live in _____ completely and totally corrupted by sin.

Second, we must remember that, as of today, God has _____ the final Day of the LORD out of mercy, grace, and patience.

God is _____ and wants to give as much time as He is able for people to _____.

Do not wait. The time is now. Repent, and call others to repentance also.