Mt.15.29-39 - "Compassion for the Outsider" #194

The God of Scripture is a God of C_____.

John 3.16: _____

❖ It is God's compassion for man that, from the time of the F_____, has offered the way back to Him.

Lamentations 3.22: _____

❖ The Lord's compassion gives fallen mankind opportunity to R_____ and be saved.

The Gospel was for all men—long before Peter's vision.

None of the Gospel writers gives D_____ of the healings - we are simply told that He healed them.

Jesus' healings were instantaneous and complete.

Compassion is taken from the Latin, which means to S_____ W_____.

The Lord ended each phase of His ministry with a feeding:

✚ He ended the ministry in G_____ with the feeding of the five thousand.

✚ He ended the ministry in the G_____ area with the feeding of the four thousand.

✚ He ended the J_____ ministry with the feeding of His own in the upper room."

Important lessons from Jesus' Gentile ministry:

1st, we see Jesus' U_____ divine power.

2nd, He set Himself totally A_____ from self-proclaimed divine healers of past years & modern times.

3rd, we learn that the goal of ministry is W_____.

4th, we see the necessity of relying on divine R_____.

We are most usable to the Lord when we acknowledge our own lack of resources.

5th, we learn that God's resources are never D_____.

6th, we learn about the servant's U_____.

7th, we learn that God gives L_____.

Lk.6.38: _____

8th, is the lesson of spiritual I_____.

9th, is the L_____ compassion of Jesus Christ – the overarching lesson.

CONCLUSION:

Our compassion is not measured by our F_____ but by our G_____.
